INTRODUCTION

The Directory of Canadian Commercial Air Services is comprised of two lists. One contains the names of licensed air carriers indicating the commercial air services which they are authorized to operate. The other list gives the details of the commercial air services being provided at each Canadian point. In both lists, the name of the carrier, the class of service provided, points served, licence number and Operating Certificate number are shown.

This Directory will be reissued every two months to subscribers. The current version may be identified by the date of issue at the bottom of the title page. To order copies of the Directory, or to cancel or amend your subscription, please refer to the instructions on the reverse of the title page.

Enquiries arising from use of the Directory should be addressed to the Secretary, Air Transport Committee, Ottawa, Ontario, KIA ON9.

Georgina Pickett,

Secretary

Because of the very nature of this publication, the information contained herein is presented in table form and is, hence, abbreviated. In order to facilitate the understanding of its content, therefore, it is considered important to provide some basic information covering the classes of commercial air services licensed, the grouping of aircraft authorized to be used under various licences, a description of the various Class 7 Specialty services authorized, and additional information, which may occasionally be expanded, for the benefit of people consulting this Directory.

It should be noted that some of the restrictions on certain licences have not been set out in detail due to the length of the description. If further information is required concerning this detail, contact the Secretary, Air Transport Committee, Ottawa, KIA ON9 (Telephone 819-997-6030).

WARNING: This Directory is issued for information purposes only and it will not be considered an authoritative document in any dispute concerning the actual authorities contained in licences.

INTRODUCTION

Le Répertoire des services aériens commerciaux du Canada contient deux listes: la première donne la liste des transporteurs aériens titulaires de permis, en indiquant les services aériens commerciaux qu'ils sont autorisés à exploiter, tandis que la deuxième donne pour chaque point du Canada desservi par des services aériens commerciaux, le détail de ces services. Dans chacune de ces deux listes figurent le nom du transporteur, la classe du service assuré, les points desservis, le numéro du permis et le numéro du certificat d'exploitation.

Un nouveau répertoire sera émis à tous les deux mois et envoyé aux abonnés. On identifiera la présente version par la date d'émission qui paraît sur la page du titre. Pour commander des copies du Répertoire, ou pour annuler ou modifier un abonnement, veuillez consulter l'envers de la page de titre.

Toute demande de renseignements relative à l'emploi du Répertoire doit être adressée au Secrétaire du Comité des transports aériens, Ottawa (Ontario), KlA ON9.

PRÉFACE

Vu le caractère de cette publication, l'information qui y est donnée se présente sous forme de tableaux, donc nécessairement abrégée. Afin d'en faciliter la consultation, il apparaît utile de fournir quelques renseignements fondamentaux visant: les classes de services aériens commerciaux autorisés par permis, les groupes d'avions dont l'usage est autorisé par ces mêmes permis, la description des différents services à spécialités autorisés par la Classe 7, et des informations supplémentaires au profit des usagers de ce répertoire — ces dernières pouvant être amplifiées à l'occasion.

Il importe de noter que quelques-unes des restrictions que portent certains permis n'ont pas été énoncées en détail en raison de la longueur de la description. Pour de plus amples renseignements à ce sujet, prière de communiquer avec le Secrétaire du Comité des transports aériens, Ottawa, KIA ON9 ((819) 997-6030).

AVERTISSEMENT: La publication de ce Répertoire est strictement pour information; s'il y a incertitude quant à la portée d'un permis, le Répertoire ne fait pas autorité.
